

SCIENTIFIC EXHIBITS WILL BE BIG FEATURE.
To Have Prominent Place at Convention of Southern Medical Association.
WOMEN PHYSICIANS TO MEET
Will Convene in Second Annual Session Simultaneously With Men's Organization—Student Reunions and Clinics to Provide Variety.

Scientific exhibits to be shown in Richmond during the annual convention of the Southern Medical Association, November 8-12, promise to be of unusual interest to laymen, as well as to the hundreds of physicians and surgeons from every section of the South who will be in attendance. Convention headquarters will be established at the Jefferson Hotel, and the numerous scientific and commercial exhibits will be shown in the hotel lobby and several adjoining rooms. Among the more important of the exhibits will be that of the Thompson-McCadden Pollagra Commission and the Tulane School of Tropical Medicine. The displays will be in charge of scientific experts and competent demonstrators.

It has been announced that the commercial exhibits this year will be more extensive than at any previous convention of the association. It is thought that the display of books, instruments, medical appliances and pharmaceutical and biological preparations will be an attractive feature of the gathering. One exhibit which will be thoroughly appreciated by the surgeons, specialist and general practitioners.

RAILWAY SURGEONS TO HOLD MEETING
On Monday, November 9, the day preceding the opening of the convention of the Southern Medical Association, the Southern Association of Railway Surgeons will meet in annual session in the palm room of the Jefferson Hotel. This meeting will be called to order by President J. C. Duncan, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn. The questions to be considered will be of common practical interest. A large proportion of Southern surgeons who do railroad work are expected to be present.

On the afternoon of the opening day of the convention the second annual session of the Association of Southern Medical Women will be held in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel. This association was organized one year ago, when the parent association held its convention at Lexington, Ky. It was believed that as so many Southern women were now engaged in the practice of medicine that it was entirely proper for them to combine in some organization for their mutual benefit. The association is not intended for scientific work, but meets at the same time and place as the Southern Medical Association.

HEALTH TRAIN IS OBJECT OF INTEREST
An object of peculiar interest to many of the physicians who will attend the Richmond convention will be the "Health Train," which Dr. Oscar Dowling, president of the Louisiana State Board of Health, organized, and has exhibited throughout the United States. Everywhere the train has been exhibited it has been visited by throngs of interested observers from every walk in life. The "Health Train," it is said, has performed a valuable mission of education. The exhibit is expected to attract direct public attention to the importance of sanitary measures.

In some respects the approaching conventions promises to collapse any medical gathering previously held in the South. Coming as they will from every section of the South, the delegates attending the convention will represent the medical views and requirements of a varied and wide territory, and the circumstances are believed to be such that the best culture and highest ability in Southern medicine will be represented at the meeting. Every phase of medicine and surgery will receive attention and the latest developments in the scientific world will be fully discussed.

An especially interesting feature of the convention will be the reunion of the alumni of various medical colleges. On Friday and Saturday, after the convention sessions, men of prominence and ability will present various clinics for the entertainment of the delegates. Those who choose to enjoy them, while those who prefer a more sportive form of recreation may witness a game of football on Saturday. Railroads of the South have granted special round-trip rates to the Richmond Convention, good for two weeks. This will enable those delegates who wish to do so to visit the Northern cities to witness clinics before returning to their Southern homes.

COMMITTEE WILL VOTE ON BRIDGE APPROACHES
Adherents of the plan to build an approach to Mayo's Bridge via the Fourteenth Street route occupied the afternoon of the Council of the City of Richmond, November 4, last night. The committee will vote upon the merits of the two approaches suggested—through the Fourteenth Street route, or by way of Fifteenth Street—and forward its recommendation to the City Council.

DETECTIVES FIND GOODS STOLEN BY SHOPLIFTERS
Valuable Lost Taken From Local Department Stores Is Recovered by Police.

WOMEN GRANTED CONTINUANCE
Three Alleged Shoplifters Released Under Heavy Bond—Burns Agency Is Employed to Protect Merchants From Thievery.

Detectives Willey and Kellam yesterday recovered $228 worth of women's wearing apparel as a result of the arrest of Mrs. M. E. Jennings, 2822 East Franklin Street, who was implicated in the shop lifting cases by Mrs. Edna Atkins and Mrs. Nora Thompson, 2111 East Broad Street, after their arrest in Miller & Rhoads several days ago. The preliminary hearing of all three women was yesterday continued until November 11, by Justice Griggs at the request of their attorneys, who asked the continuance because of the absence of important witnesses.

The police yesterday said that Mrs. Jennings' name was mentioned by the other women after their arrest as being concerned in a business transaction with Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Jennings is said to have borrowed nearly $300 from the other woman some time ago, and in return the debt is alleged to have given her a dress and cash. The dress was identified as the property of Mrs. Jennings and has been returned to them. Mrs. Jennings was employed at this firm's store.

The women appeared in court yesterday, heavily veiled. Some difficulty was experienced in securing a bondsman for both women. During the delay, Mrs. McCarthy finally furnished the bond necessary for each, and Mrs. Jennings was released. Each of the women is held with $500 bond, the minimum penalty for which is $50 fine or a year in jail.

BURNS AGENCY PROTECTS LOCAL DEPARTMENT STORES
Men and women operators of the William J. Burns' International Detective Agency, with whom a number of Richmond merchants have contracted for protection against shoplifters, are already at work in Richmond department stores. It is said that women detectives watched Mrs. Atkins and Mrs. Thompson in Miller & Rhoads' store and brought their depredation to the attention of the proprietors. The women were interrogated in the office of the store and were later turned over to the local police.

Secretary W. A. Clarke, Jr., of the Retail Merchants' Association, last night confirmed the report that the Burns Agency would afford Richmond merchants protection from this class of thieves. In the Richmond stores have assumed great proportions in recent months. Mr. Clarke said that he has gone to the store and seen the practice of the Burns Agency. Mr. Burns was in Richmond several weeks ago, when the parent association held its convention at Lexington, Ky. It was believed that as so many Southern women were now engaged in the practice of medicine that it was entirely proper for them to combine in some organization for their mutual benefit.

The association is not intended for scientific work, but meets at the same time and place as the Southern Medical Association.

An object of peculiar interest to many of the physicians who will attend the Richmond convention will be the "Health Train," which Dr. Oscar Dowling, president of the Louisiana State Board of Health, organized, and has exhibited throughout the United States. SUPREME COURT DENIES BOOKMAKER NEW TRIAL
Morris Cobe, Arrested at Jamestown Raid, Must Serve Jail Sentence.

PETITIONER ALLEGED ERROR BY TRIAL COURT IN GRANTING AND REFUSING INSTRUCTIONS—SIX MONTHS IN JAIL AND $500 FINE PENALTY.
Morris Cobe, a bookmaker, convicted on the charge of violating the antiracket law on the track of the Jamestown Jockey Club, Norfolk, and sentenced to six months in jail and to pay a fine of $500, must serve his jail sentence and pay the fine. The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia yesterday denied his appeal for a new trial.

Cobe was arrested on the race track last April on a warrant sworn out by C. Hogan. He was tried on April 8 before Justice S. B. Bragg, who adjudged him guilty and fixed his punishment at $100 fine and six months in jail. Cobe appealed to the Circuit Court of Norfolk County. The jury found him guilty, and increased the amount of the fine to $500, giving him also a term of six months in jail.

PETITION ALLEGES ERROR IN REFUSING INSTRUCTIONS
In his petition to the Supreme Court, the bookmaker set forth that the verdict was contrary to the law and evidence. He alleged error by the court in granting and refusing instructions, and charged improper argument by the Commonwealth's attorney.

The Supreme Court of Appeals assembled here for the November term yesterday. The morning session was devoted to hearing Commonwealth cases, the majority of which were of no great public interest. During the day a considerable volume and variety of matters occupied the attention of the judges. The papers in the appeal case of Mrs. Victor Hall, sentenced to serve ten years in the penitentiary for the murder of her husband in Louisiana County, were filed with the court. No action will be taken on this case for several days, in all probability.

ASK WRIT OF ERROR IN KELLY DIVORCE CASE
Application for a writ of error has been received in the case of Joseph A. Kelly vs. Mary Ann Kelly, a divorce suit which comes from the Circuit Court of Alexandria County. Kelly, formerly a resident of Boston, Mass., sued for a divorce, and a decree was awarded him. Mrs. Kelly appealed from the court's decision. The divorce was granted on the ground of desertion. Kelly is seventy-four years old, and lives in Clarendon, Alexandria County. He was married to Miss Mary A. Brady in Boston in 1900. For twenty years he was a police officer in Boston.

COMMISSIONERS NOTICES
Commissions were issued from the office of Governor Stuart yesterday to the following, who are authorized to serve as notaries public for a term of four years, commencing January 1, 1915: For the city of Richmond: Edwin F. Clements, Petersburg; C. Whittle Sams and A. H. Shapiro, city of Norfolk.

CHURCH MEMBER CAUSES ARREST OF MISSIONARY
Factions in White Rock Baptist (Colored) Church, and Police Take a Hand.

Jackson Ward has a war of its own. The congregation of the White Rock Baptist Church is divided within itself, and the factions are so bitter against one another that the missionary, now in charge of the little sanctuary, with one of his trusty lieutenants, were arrested last night on a warrant sworn out by a member of the congregation, and sent them to the station in the Second Police Station while awaiting the appearance of a bondsman.

Rev. Winfield F. Scott is the preacher's name, and the faithful one who followed him to trouble is James Williams, a member who caused their arrest is A. L. Launders, who charged the preacher and the other man with disturbing the religious worship at the church on Sunday. Bicycle Policeman Tiller arrested the men and sent them to the station house, which was filled to overflowing a short while after with members of the congregation who were "on the missionary's side of the argument."

They carried away one of the men and women carrying infants in their arms. In the centre of the group was the wife of the Rev. Scott, who loudly bewailed the disgrace of the arrest. Justice of the Peace Purdie finally consented to bail the men, when it was discovered that none of the persons present owned property in the State, and at last succeeded in clearing the station-house of the crowd. They were all admonished to appear in court this morning, and to bring as many witnesses as possible.

FINANCIAL TROUBLES CAUSE OF DISPUTE
According to the preacher, the trouble is the outgrowth of financial undertakings of the part of the church. Several of the members on his side are said to have made loans of tables, chairs and lamps to the house of worship. Later, additional furnishings were required, and one of the members provided the funds. But, instead of presenting them in church and before the eyes of the congregation, where all might see the money change hands, he alleged to have done so at a private house. The other members of the congregation were later called upon to make donations, but, after doing so, alleged that they were never given the opportunity of seeing the money counted in church. Consequently, they refused to make further payments.

On Sunday affairs reached a critical stage, and those who upheld the preacher are said to have visited the church and taken out the tables and chairs which they furnished. A later call was made, and the lamps were also secured. Then it was that the opposition asserted itself. Services could not be held, and the worship was interfered with. This caused the issuance of the warrants, and the subsequent arrest. The entire matter will be threshed out in court this morning before Justice Griggs.

Unable to Fix Blame.
In an investigation yesterday Coroner W. H. Taylor and a jury were unable to place the responsibility for the accident which cost the life of William Patterson, a negro laborer who was crushed to death several days ago at thirty-second and T Streets, where he was engaged in excavation work for the Scott-Nuckolls Company. Aside from the decision that the company was liable for the death, no conclusion was reached in fixing the blame. The company was working under a city sewer contract.

Game Association Meets.
There will be a meeting of the Virginia Game and Fish Protective Association at the City of Richmond, this evening at 8 o'clock. Subjects of wide public interest concerning the proper protection of game and fish in this State will be discussed. Ways and means of improving conditions will be considered, and it is probable that some action will be taken on several of the subjects to which the association is giving its attention at this season.
